

Call for Papers for Thematically Mixed Issue

MTS 62 (October 2019)

Moving the Social (MTS) is a peer reviewed journal published jointly by the Institute for Social Movements of Ruhr-Universität Bochum and Klartext-Verlag Essen (Germany).

Our issues are published twice a year in print and online.

For our next thematically mixed issue, to be published in October 2019, we welcome articles addressing social movements, dynamics and developments. We are open to contributions from all disciplines and welcome examinations of issues relevant to social history from all over the world.

To be considered for publication, papers:

- have to pass double blind peer review (final decision at editors' discretion)
- have to offer innovative findings
- must neither have been published previously, nor be under consideration for publication elsewhere
- have to be written in fluent, academic English (UK spelling)
- should not exceed approx. 66.800 characters, including footnotes and spaces (for exceptions please contact the Managing Editor)

Further information on submissions to MTS are available from our website.

Papers and queries can be addressed to our editorial office at mts@rub.de.

We are looking forward to hearing from you!
