

Christian Wicke (Utrecht)

Memory motives “within”, “of” and “by” social movements. The workers-settlement initiatives in the Ruhr and the Sydney green bans

Iain McIntyre (Melbourne)

“The FBI stole my fiddle”. Song and Memory in US Radical Environmentalism, 1979-1995

13:00 – Lunch

14:00 – From Local to Global. Protest Strategies and Memory Activism

Jenny Wüstenberg (Toronto)

From Memory Work to Memory Protest. How Movements Transformed Institutions of Remembrance in Germany

Kate Davison (Melbourne)

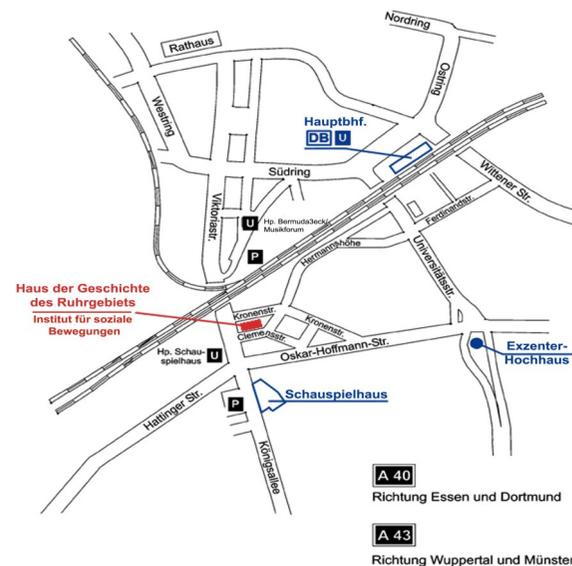

Queer Memorials and Absences. Public LGBTIQ Commemoration Strategies in Transnational Perspective

Berthold Unfried (Vienna)

Competing global movements of politics with the past around the turn of the Millennium

Circa 15:30 – End of Conference

Directions & Contact

Ruhr-University Bochum
Institute for Social Movements
Clemensstraße 17-19
44789 Bochum

Opening Hours: Mo.-Fr. 09:00-18:00

Web: www.rub.de/isb

Contact for further information and registration

histmem@ruhr-uni-bochum.de

#histmen

19-20 July 2017

International Conference

History, Memory, and Social Movements

Ruhr-University Bochum
Institute for Social Movements

History, Memory, and Social Movements

Wednesday, 19 July

10:15 – Conference Opening

Stefan Berger (Bochum) / Sean Scalmer (Melbourne)

Welcome address

10:30 – Alternative Conceptions, Traditions and Theoretical Reflections on Memory in Social Movements

Ann Rigney (Utrecht)

The Afterlife of Hope

Mischa Gabowitsch (Potsdam)

Protest and Commemorative Movements in Present-Day Russia: Unexpected Structural Similarities

11:20 – Coffee/Tea

11:30 – The Memory of the Labour Movement

Stefan Berger (Bochum)

How do trade unions remember? Preliminary thoughts on a wide-open research area

Liam Byrne (Melbourne)

Labours Lives Lost? Personal and political memory in the Australian labour movement

Sean Scalmer (Melbourne)

Remembering the Movement for Eight Hours. Commemoration and Mobilisation in Australia

13:00 – Lunch

14:00 – The Memory of Anarchism and Syndicalism

Dennis Bos (Leiden)

The Influence of the Paris Commune of 1871 and its Memory within the International Anarchist, Socialist and Communist Movement

Jule Ehms (Bochum)

“Devoted by the organized workers of the city”. The Remembrance of the Märzgefallenen by workers’ organizations during the Weimar Republic

15:00 – Coffee/Tea

15:15 – The Memory of Communists and Leftists

Till Kössler (Bochum)

The Memory of Communism in West-Germany

Sarah Langwald (Bochum)

Memory as a strategy in court? Dealing with the past in trials against Communists in 1950s/60s West Germany

Chloe Ward (Melbourne)

Inside Which Whale? The British Left Remembers the Popular Front

18:30 – Conference Dinner

Thursday, 20 July

09:15 – The Memory of Movements for Peace

Alrun Berger (Bochum)

The Role of Sacrifice and Mourning within the West German Peace Movement of the early 1960s

David Lowe (Geelong)

Atomic Testing in Australia. Memories, mobilisations and mistrust

Richard Rohmoser (Mannheim)

“Grassroots Security Policy”. Nonviolent Protests Against Nuclear Missiles in Mutlangen, 1983-1987

10:45 – Coffee/Tea

11:00 – The Memory of Environmental and Urban Movements

Stephen Milder (Groningen)

„We said no!” Remembering the resistance at Wyhl in the 1970s and today